

8 NEWS

When it comes to commodity prices, crystal ball gazing is always fraught with danger. However, it doesn't stop many from doing it. ANZ research has indicated the glory days of high gold prices will continue with predictions of a $US2,000/oz gold price in 2012

22 MINER OF THE YEAR

Integra Mining Ltd has made a name for itself as one of WA's most exceptional explorers. It is somewhat ironic then that it should pick up its first Gold Mining Journal award in the Miner of the Year category. Dominic Piper spoke to managing director Chris Cairns about how the company has turned the old adage about explorers making for bad miners around

16 COVER

The first Gold Mining Journal of the year always brings with it results of the highly prized Miner and Explorer of the Year awards. This year sees two new winners, both based in Western Australia, Integra Mining Ltd and Doray Minerals Ltd

36 NEWGENGOLD

November saw Paydirt host the ninth instalment of the NewGenGold exploration forum. Some 16 case histories were presented over two days to an audience of more than 450. Gold Mining Journal takes a look at the highlights as well as some of the other discoveries making waves at present

18 EXPLORER OF THE YEAR

Doray Minerals Ltd has made a remarkable start to life on the ASX, rocketing to prominence on the back of its Andy Well discovery in the Murchison district of WA. Luke Sizer went to site to find out why our experts judged the company Explorer of the Year
